INSTRUCTIONS

- Purpose of Form — Hawaii has neither an inheritance nor a gift tax. The Hawaii estate and transfer tax is based on the Federal State Death Tax Credit (FSDTC). For persons dying after June 30, 1983 but before January 1, 2005, this tax is imposed on the transfer of the taxable estate of every resident and the taxable estate located in Hawaii of every nonresident. If a federal estate tax return (Form 706) is required and there was a federal estate tax due, then the personal representative or person(s) in possession, control or custody of the property must file Form M-6 (Hawaii Estate Tax Report) with the Hawaii Department of Taxation. For persons dying after April 30, 2010, this tax is imposed on the transfer of the taxable estate of every resident and the taxable estate located in Hawaii of every nonresident. If the taxable estate of a resident or nonresident citizen decedent is less than $3,500,000 or the taxable estate of a nonresident-noncitizen is less than $60,000, no Hawaii Estate Tax Report (Form M-6) is required.

If an estate is not taxable and no estate tax is due, the personal representative or person(s) in possession, control, or custody of the property must file a Request for Release (Form M-6A) with the State Department of Taxation if they wish to obtain a release, which indicates that the personal representative or person(s) in possession, control, or custody are free from taxes under chapter 236D, Hawaii Revised Statutes.

- Who Should File — The Form M-6A should be filed by the personal representative or a person in control, custody, or possession of the decedent's property.
- Time to File — This report is due within 9 months after the date of the decedent's death.
- Where to File — The completed form may be mailed to the Hawaii Department of Taxation, Estate and Transfer Tax Section, P. O. Box 259, Honolulu, Hawaii 96809-0259.
- Where to Get More Information — More information is available on the Department's website at www.hawaii.gov/tax or you may contact the customer service representative:
